

The Certified Confidentiality Officer (CCO) Programme

Application Form for UK Candidates

Certified Confidential Officer (CCO) Programme Requirements

Applicants

- 1 Must have a minimum of three years of security experience.
- 2 Must have performed at least five security surveys, audits or inspections.
- 3 Must pass the Certified Confidentiality Officer (CCO) written examination.

The Certified Confidentiality Officer (CCO) Examination

The Certified Confidentiality Officer (CCO) exam consists of 200 multiple-choice questions. Candidates are allowed up to 4 hours to complete the test.

The exam is based on the Third Edition of the textbook, "101 Questions & Answers About Business Espionage" which is required reading for those preparing to take the test. The book is provided as part of the CCO Program and is available only from BECCA. Earlier editions of the textbook are no longer used.

The CCO written examination covers:

- Putting The Spy World In Perspective - 20%
- The Personal Side Of Business Espionage - 17%
- Pretext Attacks - 10%
- Technical Surveillance - 18%
- Computer Abuse - 15%
- Undercover Attacks - 10%
- Planning Controls & Countermeasures Programs - 10%

Step 3

Your application will be reviewed. Some applicants may be asked to supply further information to assure that everyone who applies has an equal opportunity to meet admission requirements.

Incomplete applications will be returned.

Step 4

Applicants who are accepted for testing will be notified by e-mail. The £ Testing and Certification fee is payable at that time. (CCO Programme fees are non refundable) .

Step 5

Attend the CCO examination at a pre-arranged location.

Students are responsible for making their travel arrangements to and from the test as well as meeting their travel costs.

Students will need to bring proof of identification with them to the test.

The CCO examination may be taken at any time within 12 months from the date the CCO Candidate was accepted for testing.

In the event of failing the exam, students will be offered the opportunity to resit it at a later date. There is no additional fee for the second test.

Applicants who satisfactorily complete the exam will be designated as Certified Confidentiality Officers.

A CCO Certificate and laminated ID Card will be issued and the names of CCOs will be listed in a permanent database.

Note

Business espionage controls & countermeasures is a management function. CCOs must adhere to the BECCA Code of Ethics and demonstrate continued commitment to the profession by completing a new security survey, or otherwise making a meaningful contribution to the CCO profession at least once a year. These activities must be sanctioned by BECCA. Surveys and other materials generated by this process are a valuable resource. The CCO retains the copyright to his or her work. Confidentiality guidelines apply.
